Springfield officers received a county broadcast that Upper Darby was pursuing a vehicle wanted for a home invasion in Philadelphia and a shooting in Darby Borough. Officer Dan Boyd observed the vehicle traveling at a high rate of speed on Baltimore Pike at Saxer Ave. He lost sight of the vehicle as it continued west on Baltimore Pike. While checking the area, Officer Boyd found that the vehicle had crashed in the 900 block of Woodland Ave and the driver fled the vehicle. Officers from multiple jurisdictions were searching the area when a resident of Greenbriar Lane reported his rear door kicked in. The family was escorted from the home and police searched inside. Wali Shereef Davis-Grant, 25 years old from Philadelphia, was found hiding in the basement. He was taken into custody and turned over to Darby Borough officers. He is facing an extensive list of charges from multiple agencies.
