Agents from the PA Office of the Attorney General met at Springfield Police Headquarters to request assistance with a drug transaction involving a large quantity of marijuana. Agents and officers positioned themselves in the Springfield Mall parking lot. The suspect vehicle arrived and the drug transaction occurred. Agents and officers attempted to arrest the suspect, a 41 year old male from Brookhaven, in the parking lot, however he was able to maneuver his vehicle out of the lot and onto the highway. He abandoned his vehicle on a residential street and attempted to elude police on foot. Sgt Michael Vaughan observed the suspect in the 500 block of Riverview Rd, Swarthmore, and followed him into the rear yards. Sgt Vaughan located the suspect and held him at gunpoint until assisting officers arrived and took him into custody. The case is being handled by the Attorney General's Office.
