A 14 yr. old Springfield child and 18 yr. old Morton child thought it would be a fun idea to act like children and disrupt a children's ride attraction at the mall by entering the ride area and jumping on the ride. When told by adults the ride was for good children only, the bad children threw the ride against a wall. Mall security asked the boys to leave, but they continued to act disruptive. Officers responded to the area and found these two loitering in the rear lot and of course recognized them from the area. After questioning the two about the incident inside the mall and why these two were hanging out together, the 14 yr. old child thought it would be fun to walk away, curse the officers, and throw an empty potato chip can on the ground. Both children are facing charges, and their parents were notified.
