Officers were called to the Ichiban Buffet to investigate a male who was enjoying the buffet but whom did not pay for the service. Officers arrived and observed the male being verbally aggressive with the employees. The male then left the business. Instead of leaving the area, the male walked around the parking lot threatening police, pulled at door handles to parked vehicles, and urinated. A female then joined the male, and it was learned that she had eaten inside the buffet without paying as well. The female attempted to calm the male, but the male became more aggressive and pulled an uncapped hypodermic needle and threatened to stab police. He was taken into custody, and it was found he had earlier ingested cocaine and heroin. The female was also taken into custody after she was found to have possessed crack cocaine. Zachary Parslow 41 yrs. old from Philadelphia, and Cheryl Kelly 35 yrs. old from Philadelphia were charged with drug and other offenses and taken to Delaware County Prison.
