Ofc. Kingsbury investigated a report of a road rage incident that occurred on State Rd. near the intersection of Collins Dr. He found that after two vehicles had an issue with a merge on the highway, both drivers pointed at each other using a long finger. When both vehicles stopped, one of the drivers exited her car and poured a drink on the other's car windshield. The driver then re-entered her vehicle and drove away. Ofc. Kingsbury found the driver to be a 21 yr. old female from Broomall. She will be charged with Disorderly Conduct and other motor vehicle code violations.

Police received a report of two juvenile males riding motorized scooters near Jane Lownes Park Kennerly Rd. They were observed stopping their scooters and pouring a drink from a Mike's Hard Lemonade bottle into a Gatorade bottle. A short time later, Ofc. Kingsbury located the juveniles riding their scooters in a nearby parking lot. He made contact with them and found them to have beer inside their backpack and found them to have been the males mixing "ades" (Lemon and Gator) in the park. Both males were turned over to their parents and will be charged with Underage Drinking.
