Pacific Sunwear, 1250 Baltimore Pike, reported a retail theft. A store employee heard the audible security alarm activate at the front of the store. She observed 2 women and 1 man exiting the store carrying a large amount of merchandise. The suspects were last seen running toward the Target store and exiting the mall. A description of the suspects and a possible vehicle was provided to police. Det. James Devaney is investigating.

3-9-18 1330 hrs.

Officer Kai DiRemigio responded to the Target Store, 857 Baltimore Pike, for an accident in the parking lot. When he arrived, he observed one of the drivers, Addesse G. Willie, 41 years old from Philadelphia, yelling at the other driver. Officer DiRemigio separated both parties and collected their information. During the investigation, Willie began screaming at the other driver and spit in his face. Officer DiRemigio tried to calm Willie, but she refused to comply with directions. She was advised she was under arrest and resisted, struggling with the officer as he placed her in handcuffs. As a result, Officer DiRemigio suffered scratches to his face, bites to his arm and a laceration above his lip. Addesse G. Willie was charged with Aggravated Assault, Resisting Arrest and other related charges. Det. Bridget McCarthy is handling the case..
